

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

11 JOSE ROBERTO COLATO,)
12 Petitioner,) 3:10-cv-00470-RCJ-VPC
13 vs.) ORDER
14 Le GRAND, et al.,)
15 Respondents.) /

17 This action is a pro se petition for a writ of habeas corpus filed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254,
18 by a Nevada state prisoner. Before the Court is respondents' motion to dismiss the original petition
19 (ECF No. 6), respondents' motion to file petitioner's presentence report in camera and under seal
20 (ECF No. 13), and respondents' motion to strike the first amended petition (ECF No. 20).

21 || I. Motion to File Document Under Seal

22 On January 13, 2011, respondents filed an answer to the petition, as well as exhibits. (ECF
23 Nos. 6-12). Concurrent with the filing of the answer, respondents brought a motion for leave file a
24 document under seal. (ECF No. 13). Respondents seek to file under seal petitioner's presentence
25 report containing confidential information regarding petitioner, and filed the report under seal for in 26 camera review. (ECF No. 12).

1 There is a strong presumption in favor of public access to judicial filings and documents. See
 2 Nixon v. Warner Communication, Inc., 435 U.S. 589, 597 (1978); see also Kamakana v. City and
 3 County of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172, 1178 (9th Cir. 2006); Foltz v. State Farm Mut. Auto Ins. Co.,
 4 331 F.3d 1122, 1134 (9th Cir. 2003). The court has inherent power over its own records and files,
 5 and access may be denied where the court determines that the documents may be used for improper
 6 purposes.” Nixon v. Warner Comm., Inc., 435 U.S. at 598; Hagestad v. Tragesser, 49 F.3d 1430,
 7 1433-34 (9th Cir. 1995); Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172, 1179 (9th Cir.
 8 2006).

9 The Ninth Circuit distinguishes between dispositive and nondispositive pleadings and 10 motions in terms of the showing required to seal a document. For a document filed with a
 11 dispositive motion, “compelling reasons” must be shown to justify sealing the document. Kamakana
 12 v. City and County of Honolulu, 447 F.3d at 1179-89. In contrast, for documents filed with non-
 13 dispositive motions, a “good cause” showing will suffice to keep the records sealed. Id. This is 14 based on the reasoning that the public has less need for access to records that are merely tangentially
 15 related to the underlying cause of action. Id. at 1179. A showing of good cause generally requires a 16 specific description of the particular document(s) sought to be sealed and a showing that disclosure
 17 of such documents would work a “clearly defined and serious injury.” Pansy v. Borough of 18 Stroudsburg, 23 F.3d 772, 776 (3rd Cir. 1994). Where good cause is shown for a protective order, the 19 court must balance the potential harm to the moving party’s interests against the public’s right to 20 access the court files. Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu, 447 F.3d at 1179-89.

21 The presentence report of petitioner was submitted in support of respondents’ motion to 22 dismiss. The motion to dismiss is a dispositive filing and therefore respondents must show
 23 “compelling reasons” to keep the document sealed. Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu, 447
 24 F.3d at 1179-89. This Court has reviewed the presentence report submitted under seal. (ECF No.
 25 12). The report contains confidential information concerning petitioner, and under NRS 176.156, is 26

1 entitled to continued confidentiality in these proceedings. On balance, the potential harm to both
2 respondents' and petitioner's interests outweighs the public's right to access the presentence report.
3 Respondents have made an adequate showing of compelling reasons to keep the presentence report
4 of petitioner sealed. Accordingly, the Court grants respondents' motion to seal petitioner's
5 presentence report. The report, which was submitted for in camera review at ECF No. 12, will 6 remain sealed.

7 II. Motion to Dismiss, Amended Petition, & Motion to Strike Amended Petition

8 In the motion to dismiss, filed January 13, 2011, respondents argue that the claims in the 9 petition are unexhausted. (ECF No. 6). After the filing of the motion to dismiss, petitioner filed an 10 amended petition on March 21, 2011. (ECF No. 19). Respondents then filed a motion to strike the 11 amended petition. (ECF No. 20).

12 Rule 12 to the Rules Governing Section 2254 Cases in the United States District Courts
13 provides that the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure apply to habeas corpus proceedings "to the extent
14 they are not inconsistent with any statutory provisions of these rules." Rule 15 of the Federal Rules
15 of Civil Procedure provides: "A party may amend its pleading once as a matter of course within: (A)
16 21 days after serving it, or (B) if a pleading is one to which a responsive pleading is required, 21 days
17 after service of a responsive pleading or 21 days after service of a motion under Rule 12(b), (e), or 18 (f), whichever is earlier." Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a)(1)(A), (B). Rule 15 further provides that: "In all
19 other cases, a party may amend its pleading only with the opposing party's written consent or the 20 court's leave. The court should freely give leave when justice so requires." Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a)(2).

21 Respondents argue that the amended petition is improper because petitioner failed to seek
22 leave to file the amended petition. Respondents further argue that the amended petition is improper
23 because petitioner is somehow circumventing procedural requirements. (ECF No. 20).

24 Petitioner did not file his amended habeas petition within 21 days after being served with 25 respondents' motion to dismiss. As such, petitioner must have leave of court to file an amended

1 petition. Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a)(2). “Under the Rules, the impulse is toward entertaining the broadest
2 possible scope of action consistent with fairness to the parties; joinder of claims, parties and
3 remedies is strongly encouraged.” United Mine Workers v. Gibbs, 383 U.S. 715, 724 (1966); see also League to Save Tahoe v. Tahoe Regional Planning Agency, 558 F.2d 914, 917 (9th Cir. 1977).
4 The Court finds that petitioner has shown good cause for amending the petition. The Court
5 perceives no bad faith or dilatory motive in petitioner’s filing of the amended petition. The 6 amendments made in the amended petition cannot be construed as futile. To the extent that
7 respondents wish to raise procedural defenses to the amended petition, they may do so by filing a
8 response to the amended petition, as set forth at the conclusion of this order. As such, respondents
9 are not prejudiced by allowing this action to proceed on the amended petition. Respondents’ motion
10 to strike the amended petition is denied. Furthermore, the motion to dismiss the original petition is 11 denied, without prejudice to renewing their arguments in the response to the amended petition.
12

13 III. Conclusion

14 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that respondents’ motion to seal petitioner’s presentence
15 report (ECF No. 13) is GRANTED. The Clerk of Court shall keep petitioner’s presentence report
16 (ECF No. 12) under seal.

17 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that respondents’ motion to strike the amended petition (ECF 18 No. 20) is DENIED.

19 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this action SHALL PROCEED on the amended
20 petition, filed March 21, 2011. (ECF No. 19).

21 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that respondents’ motion to dismiss (ECF No. 6) is 22 DENIED, without prejudice to renewing their arguments in responding to the amended petition.

23 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that within thirty (30) days from the date of issuance of this 24 order, respondents SHALL FILE A RESPONSE to the amended petition (ECF No. 19). If the 25 response is in the form of an answer, petitioner is granted thirty (30) days from being served with 26

1 the answer to file a reply. However, if a motion to dismiss is filed, the matter shall be briefed in
2 accordance with Rule 7-2 of the Local Rules of Civil Practice.

3 DATED: This 5th day of July, 2011.
